I Disobey the Rules Sometimes

Even when we disobey the rules, God still loves us!

We do commit sins sometimes: everyone does: you, your parents, your teachers, even priests.

Sin hurts us and others, sometimes in ways that can be seen, sometimes invisibly.

Sin also hurts our relationship to God.

Reconciliation helps heal us.

How does the Church celebrate God’s forgiveness?

➢ At Mass, in one of the opening prayers when admit we have sinned, we say we are sorry and learn about contrition.

➢ Through the sacrament of reconciliation we are reminded that God forgives us.
Growing up Catholic means we start celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation

Everyone begins by making the Sign of the Cross.

All: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Leader: Jesus, thank you for bringing us all together here today. We love you and want to learn to love you more through the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

All: We love you Jesus. Thank you for loving us.

Leader: You have given us courage and strength, Jesus. You have given us the Holy Spirit to be with us.

All: We open our hearts to you today.

Please listen to the reading: Matthew 18:21-22.

Leader: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ!

Please listen to the leader.

Leader: Let us pray together.

Please pause after each line:

All: Oh Jesus,

Thank you for forgiving us every time we sin
Please give us the love in our hearts To forgive our friends and family when they hurt us or make us angry.

Amen.
What Is a Sin?

A sin is choosing to do something we know is wrong or intentionally not doing something we know is right.

Free will — God gives us the freedom to make choices between good and bad things. No one can force us to do what is right or what is wrong: not our parents, and not even God. But God also gives us grace. Grace is the power of the Holy Spirit within us, helping us choose love and good.

Look at these three pictures. Tell a story about how these people could choose to be good and loving — or choose to be bad and mean.

What is Our Conscience?

Our conscience is God’s voice within us, helping us know right from wrong. Sometimes we have to listen very closely to our hearts to hear that voice.

Growing up Catholic means we learn to pay attention to our conscience and follow it. The Church helps us by teaching us God’s rules of love.

In the pictures above, tell how each child’s CONSCIENCE helped them make a decision for good and to be loving.
Meeting Jesus in the Bible

As we prepare for First Reconciliation, we want to know Jesus as a friend and learn to love him more.

Jesus calls all of us to return to him just as the son in this story returned to his father.

God is waiting for us.

From Luke 15:11–24 (NRSV)

Then Jesus said, “There was a man who had two sons. The younger of them said to his father, ‘Father, give me the share of the property that will belong to me.’ So he divided his property between them.

‘A few days later the younger son gathered all he had and traveled to a distant country, and there he squandered his property in dissolute living. When he had spent everything, a severe famine took place throughout that country, and he began to be in need. So he went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed the pigs. He would gladly have filled himself with the pods that the pigs were eating; and no one gave him anything.

But when he came to himself he said, ‘How many of my father’s hired hands have bread enough and to spare, but here I am dying of hunger! I will get up and go to my father, and I will say to him, “Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me like one of your hired hands.”’

“So he set off and went to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion; he ran and put his arms around him and kissed him. Then the son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’

“But the father said to his slaves, “Quickly, bring out a robe—the best one—and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. And get the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate; for this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found!’ And they began to celebrate.”
How Do We Live This Story?

Notice the parallels in the story of the prodigal son and in your life.

The Penance

What is a “penance” and why does the priest give us one?

- A “penance” is a task given to us by the priest after we confess our sins
- It helps us turn our hearts back to God
- It helps us turn away from sin

Your penance might be an action that makes amends for your sin, a prayer, some other way to help you change your life and avoid sin in the future.

It might be something like:

- praying for a person you have spread rumors about
- returning something you have stolen
- giving up something we like for a period of time
- donating money for a good cause

You should perform your penance as soon after your Confession as possible – it will help you feel freer!
In the Act of Contrition, we promise to try our best to love more and sin less, especially the sins we have committed in the recent past. This week, practice making promises. Use the chart below to help you.
